Region: Peter, Eoin alt

Not much to report since last region. Peter Received a call from Andy (treasurer of ISO), he reported that there was very nearly no convention committee for this year unless he took up the position as convention treasurer as the chair person was threatening to step down from their position. So as of 3 weeks ago Andy is now treasurer for the ISO and the Convention treasurer.

AOB

- It has been decided to start using a prepaid credit card for running adverts, Peter who was currently running the adverts on face book is no longer able to keep on the position. Conor PI will report back next month after speaking with peter to explain what it entails to run the adverts for face book, interest was shown about helping PI with this position.
- The vote was passed on the IRSC & Misappropriations policy. Ruthland street group requested that people responsible for money need to have more than 18mths clean time.
- A suggestion came up about given larger starter packs for new meetings starting in rural areas. This is to be discussed for next area.

Next area on in Waterford St John's church Sunday April 14th
