It was discussed if the Kerry groups could make better contact with one another and to possibly have one GSR that could put in a report for the other groups.

Meetings were asking for advice about what should happen if an underage member attends a meeting, the decision was that it should be turned into an Open meeting.

Region is struggling with Finances and if all groups could donate a little more it would be appreciated.

Next area on November 11th 3.00pm
